The Addition Of Soy Milk To Pineapple Cellies As A Complementary Alternative To Nutritious Snacks For Children

Dear Dr Afifah,

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to International Journal of Gastronomy and Food Science.

I have completed my evaluation of your manuscript. The reviewers recommend reconsideration of your manuscript following minor revision and modification. I invite you to resubmit your manuscript after addressing the comments below. Please resubmit your revised manuscript by Jun 21, 2022.

When revising your manuscript, please consider all issues mentioned in the reviewers' comments carefully; please outline every change made in response to their comments and provide suitable rebuttals for any comments not addressed. Please note that your revised submission may need to be re-reviewed.

To submit your revised manuscript, please log in as an author at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/ijgfs/>, and navigate to the "Submissions Needing Revision" folder under the Author Main Menu.

International Journal of Gastronomy and Food Science values your contribution and I look forward to receiving your revised manuscript.

Kind regards,

Juan-Carlos Arbolea, PhD

International Journal of Gastronomy and Food Science

Editor and Reviewer comments:

The manuscript presents some interesting results about several quality parameters of pineapple cellies fortified with different amounts of soy milk. The aim of experiment was clearly showed, however design of experiment, materials and methods as well as way of presenting results needs some further improvements.

Detailed remarks:

2. Methods

in description of soy milk preparation as well as chellies making please give more detailed information:

- what was the raw materials for soy milk preparation? (producer/origin ect.); please give information what was the amount of obtained soy milk. If the milk was not used as a fresh prepared in chellies making please add information about storage conditions
- please give information about the source of sodium alginate ect.; what dose it mean "pinnapple juice was generated"? it was fresh pressed??? please add infomation about amounts of obtained samples; also about the diameter of obtained chelies; how they were stored untill the time of analyses ect
- proximate analyses - please remove the name of laboratory where analyses were conducted - it can be mentioned in the beginning (and only one time); on the other hand please add as references norms ect.
- in general it should be also given information in how many repetition the experiment was conducted as well as single analyses
- please add references to point 2.4; remove the way of calculation as it it well known
- please add references to point 2.5 and 2.6 and 2.7
- please add the name of colorimeter used in color test; what scale was used to measurement? if CieLab then please use *; also add some references to this point
- please add references 2.9
- please add more information - what was the scale used in those tests? any references?

Table 1 - why there is no superscript letters with data: crude fiber, vit. C and calcium???

Table 3 - please check the way of writing L, a, b with *

Table 4 - please add what scale was used (points from ..to...)

Table 5 - why there is no information in material and methods that yogurts were prepared? please add it? what was the amount of pineapple chellies added to yogurt ect?

MethodsX (optional)

We invite you to submit a method article alongside your research article. This is an opportunity to get full credit for the time and money spent on developing research methods, and to increase the visibility and impact of your work. If your research article is accepted, we will contact you with instructions on the submission process for your method article to MethodsX. On receipt at MethodsX it will be editorially reviewed and, upon acceptance, published as a separate method article. Your articles will be linked on ScienceDirect.

Please prepare your paper using the MethodsX Guide for Authors: <https://www.elsevier.com/journals/methodsx/2215-0161/gu>

*****

Data in Brief (optional):

We invite you to convert your supplementary data (or a part of it) into an additional journal publication in Data in Brief, a multi-disciplinary open access journal. Data in Brief articles are a fantastic way to describe supplementary data and associated metadata, or full raw datasets deposited in an external repository, which are otherwise unnoticed. A Data in Brief article (which will be reviewed, formatted, indexed, and given a DOI) will make your data easier to find, reproduce, and cite.

You can submit to Data in Brief when you upload your revised manuscript. To do so, complete the template and follow the co-submission instructions found here: www.elsevier.com/dib-template. If your manuscript is accepted, your Data in Brief submission will automatically be transferred to Data in Brief for editorial review and publication.

Please note: an open access Article Publication Charge (APC) is payable by the author or research funder to cover the costs associated with publication in Data in Brief and ensure your data article is immediately and permanently free to access by all. For the current APC see: www.elsevier.com/journals/data-in-brief/2352-3409/open-access-journal

Please contact the Data in Brief editorial office at dib-me@elsevier.com or visit the Data in Brief homepage (www.journals.elsevier.com/data-in-brief/) if you have questions or need further information.
