Reviewer B:

Recommendation: Accept Submission

I. Check the Quality of the Paper:

- Interest of the topic to the readers
- Originality and novelty of the ideas
- Sufficient information to support the assertions made and conclusions drawn
- Quality of writing(Organization, clarity, accuracy)
- English Grammar
- References and citation (up-to-date, appropriate, sufficient)

II. Comments for Authors (Please use as much space as is needed.)

In this paper, the authors proposed an investigation of the structural response of a catamaran livestock carrier in Indonesia waterways environment.

The manuscript displays compelling illustrations and figures which support its arguments. The images are clear and in good quality.

The idea of this work is interesting and easy to comprehend. The content is well organized with good set of related literature.

Future implications and limitations must be added in the conclusion.

The paper is recommended for publication after making minor revisions.

Best regards,

Editor-in-Chief of IJAST
