Catatan Penilaian artikel oleh Reviewer :

- Unsur isi jurnal cukup lengkap. Tidak ada DOI. Tidak ada acknowledgement.
- Pembahasan didukung dengan lebih dari 30 pustaka yang sebagian besar bersumber dari pustaka primer (jurnal). Diskusi untuk mengkaitkan findings dan teori kurang mendalam.
- Metode pengumpulan data melalui kuesioner dan wawancara dengan community leaders. Analisis menggunakan SWOT. Kurang terlihat kemutakhiran dalam pencarian data dan metode analisis yang dipergunakan.
- Jurnal terbitan India, terindeks SCOPUS (Q1, SJR 0,28), dan ada di scimagojr. Sebagian besar artikel diambil dari hasil ISVS seminar yang dimodifikasi. Agak meragukan karena saat artikel ini dinilai belum dapat ditemukan di database pengindeks SCOPUS. Artikel ini terbit di Vol 10(1) dan saat ini sudah terbit Vol 10(2).

Abstract

Kampoeng Batik Semarang is a Thematic Kampoeng in the city of Semarang that faces sustainability threats, especially because of the inefficient waste disposal process in batik production. There is a serious question as to how to balance the economic aspects of batik production with environmental and socio-cultural aspects.

This study aims to formulate strategies for Sustainable Urban Tourism (SUT) in the context of the problems of tourism management in Kampoeng Batik Semarang. The research was conducted from 2019 to 2022, involving interviews with 97 respondents. The SWOT and IFAS/EFAS Matrix analysis were used to help in formulating the SUT strategy with a priority scale. 26 strategies were discovered. They were dominated by proposals to strengthen the system of development, management, and re-structuring the industry to become multi-sectoral.

Keywords: Sustainable Urban Tourism (SUT), Kampoeng Batik Semarang, Thematic Kampoeng, Tourism Management, SUT Strategies.

Dear Authors,

I am delighted to be able to tell you that the ISVS e-journal Vol. 10 Issue 1 has just been published. I am responding to the review comments and observations (sometimes severe criticisms) and bringing up the expected by the journal. Without your dedication and perseverance, the journal would not have been able to reach this standard.

I appreciate and thank also those who have made the payment of the publication fees on time and diligently the Financial Institutions, who often mess them up. The fees support the journal to continue to be published. Now that your research papers you have so tirelessly developed, with the wider academic community. Now that your papers are published, please share the news with others and enable the knowledge to be shared: I suggest uploading them to ResearchGate, if you have the profiles, so that the readers could get informed.
