SCOPE

The International Review of Automatic Control (IREACO) is a peer-reviewed journal that publishes original theoretical and applied papers on all aspects of the Automatic Control. The topics to be covered include, but are not limited to: Control of linear/nonlinear systems, Stability, Controllability and Observations, Modelling Estimation and Prediction, Real-Time Systems control, Real-Time and Fault-Tolerant Systems, Multidimensional Systems control, Large Scale Control Systems, Robust Control, Intelligent Control Systems; Stochastic Control, Fuzzy Control Systems, Neuro-Controllers, Neuro-Fuzzy Controllers, Genetic Algorithms, Adaptive Control Techniques. The applications concern control methods, modelling and identification of processes in the fields of industry, ecology, natural resources, comprising physical, biological and organizational systems. They include but are not limited to: Power System Control, Control of electrical drives, Automotive Control Systems, Control of Power Electronics, Automatic Control of Chemical Processes, Thermal System Control, Robot and Manipulator Control, Aerospace Control Systems, Motion and Navigation Control, Traffic and Transport Control, Defense and Military Systems Control, Nuclear systems control, Control and analysis of Social and Human Systems, Biomedical control systems. IREACO also publishes letters to the Editor and research notes which discuss new research, or research in progress in any of the above thematic areas. The International Review of Automatic Control (IREACO) currently has an acceptance rate of 34%. The average time between submission and final decision is 40 days and the average time between acceptance and publication is 22 days.

The users of Scimago Journal & Country Rank have the possibility to dialogue through comments linked to a specific journal. The purpose is to have a forum in which general doubts about the processes of publication in the journal, experiences and other issues derived from the publication of papers are resolved. For topics on particular articles, maintain the dialogue through the usual channels with your editor.
