We will now edit and finalize your paper, which will then be returned to you for your approval. Within the next couple of days, an invoice concerning the article processing charge (APC) for publication in this open access journal will be sent by email from the Editorial Office in Basel, Switzerland.

If, however, extensive English edits are required to your manuscript, we will need to return the paper requesting improvements throughout.

We encourage you to set up your profile at SciProfiles.com, MDPI's researcher network platform. Articles you publish with MDPI will be linked to your SciProfiles page, where colleagues and peers will be able to see all of your publications, citations, as well as other academic contributions.

We also invite you to contribute to Encyclopedia (<https://encyclopedia.pub>), a scholarly platform providing accurate information about the latest research results. You can adapt parts of your paper to provide valuable reference information, via Encyclopedia, for others both within the field and beyond.

Dear Dr. Handayani,

Congratulations on your paper being accepted for publication in Sustainability.

To enhance your visibility, as well as that of co-authors, we would like to invite you to set up profiles on SciProfiles (<https://sciprofiles.com>), which will allow us to add a link for each author to their permanent homepage in the final version of the paper.

You can use the link below to register or login using your MDPI credentials:
https://sciprofiles.com/author\_registration/26780ac365aec7f6854d63152851d346/M1ZZWFBnYVRkQjNOcllvchMrNmNiKzY2Z1laalpjN0d3ZFhxaEJsODdtRT0=

After you have finished setup, please send us the link to your profile within two days, so that all articles you publish with MDPI will be linked to your SciProfiles account, where colleagues and peers will be able to see all of your publications, as well as your other academic contributions.

When filling in your profile:

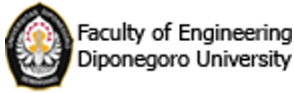

1. Please use the email address that is associated with your publications if possible;
2. Please add a photo to help colleagues identify you easily and to enhance the visibility of your profile;
3. Since this is your public profile that others will see, please add your publications and key projects. Your publication list can be easily prepared by verifying your ORCID;
4. Please complete all sections of your profile in as detailed as possible, so that other researchers can find you.

Many thanks in advance for your collaboration. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact info@sciprofiles.com.

Dear Authors,

We have recently sent you a request for final proof-reading of sustainability-1514991. You now have the option to connect your ORCID to the paper via the following link:

<https://susy.mdpi.com/author/orcid/confirm/26780ac365aec7f6854d63152851d346>

ORCID is an open, non-profit, community-based effort to provide a registry of unique researcher identifiers and a transparent method of linking research activities and outputs to these identifiers. ORCID is unique in its ability to reach across disciplines, publishers, research sectors, and national boundaries and its cooperation with other identifier systems. The link above allows you to register a new ORCID if you don't already have one.

Dear Authors,

I hope this e-mail finds you well.

Congratulations on acceptance for publication. We did the layout for the main text and for the references according to the journal's formatting. The manuscript is almost ready to be published. May I kindly ask you to check the manuscript and do the proofreading carefully, in order to send the manuscript to our production team for XML conversion and publishing?

- 1) Please make sure that there are no duplicate references. Please delete if there are. If you revise the references, please make sure that all references are mentioned in the main text are in numerical order, and that there are no duplicate references in the reference list.
- 2) Please check if tables and figures are all cited in numerical order in the main text above them.
- 3) Please work on the manuscript we sent you for proofreading. Please do not change the formatting we did. The formatting is done according to the journal's rules.

Dear Authors,

Congratulations! Your manuscript has been published in Sustainability.

Thank you for choosing our journal. Your article is already available, open access, to everyone free of charge via the journal website. Promoting your work is an important part of the post-publication process which will increase the visibility, impact and citation of your work. We encourage you to promote and share your article widely.

We have some tips about what you can do to promote your article here:

<https://www.mdpi.com/authors/promoting>

To promote discoverability, views and downloads, you can:

(1) Social Media

- Share your article on various social networks, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Mendeley and Twitter by clicking the link on the webpage of your article. Tagging @MDPIOpenAccess as well as key people in your field might lead to retweets: Your publication may become viral on social media!
- Send a short text (up to 200 characters) to the MDPI assistant editor who was your contact for the publication of your manuscript, who will then post it on the journal Twitter account.
- Write a blog post to explain the meaning and possible outcomes of your research. This will lead to higher engagement of your research community. Ask your institution or society to post your paper on their social media accounts and to include a story about your paper in their newsletters.

(2) Link Share

- Share the article link directly with colleagues and peers in your field.
- Add a link to your article in your email signature.
- Update your personal and institutional websites by adding the title of your article and a link to it.

(3) Academic Research-sharing Platforms

- Set up your profile on academic research-sharing platforms, such as SciProfiles, ResearchGate, Academia.edu or Google Scholar, and add a short summary of your article.
- Register an ORCID author identifier and add the article information to your profile.
- Deposit your article in repositories (such as those run by your university) to make your research more discoverable.

(4) Conferences

- Present your publication at conferences in the form of a presentation or a poster. You may participate in conferences relevant for your field organized by MDPI on Sciforum.net.

Please keep up with any journal updates and news via our twitter account
