[PDF\] The Role of Local Champion In Community-Based Adaptation In Semarang Coastal Area](#)

B Septiarani, W Handayani - Jurnal Pembangunan Wilayah & ..., 2016 - researchgate.net

Community-based adaptation (CBA) is a new approach that is attractive because it is a process of planning led by the community, based on community priorities, needs, knowledge and capacity-a process that should empower people to plan for climate change impacts (Hordijk and baud, 2010). Governance at the community level regarded to be a way to help them in adapting and maintain their livelihood on the coastal so that they can remain in the region. Governance in community engaged individual communities to group and jointly ...
